- The name "boccia" is derived from the Latin word for "boss" – bottia.
- is contested at local, national and international levels, by athletes with severe physical disabilities.

The story of PEAC Parasport section

About the game:

- can be played by individuals, pairs, or teams of three
- aim: to throw leather balls – coloured red or blue as close as they can to a white target ball, or jack.
- The balls can be moved with hands, feet, or, if the competitor's disability is severe, with an assistive device such as a ramp. At the end of each end, the referee measures the distance of the balls closest to the jack
- Boccia is played on a court measuring 12.5 m × 6 m (41 ft × 20 ft) ,

Classification:

- must have a disability and be in a wheelchair, as a result of cerebral palsy, or another neurological condition that has similar effects, such as muscular dystrophy or traumatic brain injury
- Players are examined to determine the extent of their disability and then assigned to a sport class
- Boccia players are assigned to one of four sport classes, depending on their functional ability:
