Royal Thai Embassy,
BUDAPEST.

The Royal Thai Embassy presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Hungary and, with reference to the Embassy's Note No. 18001/562 dated 29 November 2012, regarding the Prince Mahidol Award 2012, has the honour to inform the latter that the Prince Mahidol Award Foundation under the Royal Patronage is currently opening the nominations for the Prince Mahidol Award for the year 2013.

The Embassy has further the honour to inform that Prince Mahidol Award is one of Thailand's most distinguished awards. It is named after His Royal Highness Prince Mahidol of Songkla, the father of His Majesty the King of Thailand, in his recognition as "The Father of Modern Medicine and Public Health of Thailand". The Award is conferred on outstanding individual(s) or institution(s) which have demonstrated outstanding and exemplary contribution to the advancement in the fields of medicine and public health through out the world.

Recipient of the two Prince Mahidol Awards will each receive a $100,000 prize money, a medal and a certificate.

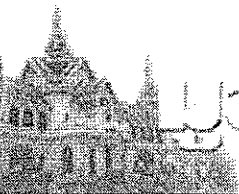

Attached hereto is information sheet about the Prince Mahidol Award and nomination procedures. Additional details and nomination form can be downloaded from website www.princemahidolaward.org.

In this connection, the Embassy would highly appreciate it if the Ministry could distribute the above-mentioned information to the Hungarian authorities concerned for consideration. The nominations can be submitted directly to the Prince Mahidol Award Foundation or through the Royal Thai Embassy before 31 May 2013.

The Royal Thai Embassy avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Hungary the assurances of its highest consideration.
