

Topics of the German oral language test

1. Informal introductory conversation in connection with the applicant's professional field
2. Simulated conversation in a professional situation with directed criteria
3. Doctor – Patient Communication:
 - interviewing the patient
 - taking medical history
 - informing the patient about the necessary examinations
 - communicating the possible diagnosis