

Interested in Humanitarian Work?

The team of
Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF) / Doctors without Borders
cordially invites you to an interactive information session

Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF) is an international medical humanitarian organization, working in over 60 countries all over the world to provide impartial help to people whose survival is threatened by violence, neglect or catastrophe.

Médecins sans Frontières assists victims of natural disaster, armed conflict and epidemics, irrespective of ethnic, political and religious affiliation. Besides its emergency missions, MSF also works in various longer term programs for the reconstruction of health care systems after crises or conflicts.

Learn more about MSF's field work, and about possibilities to join our teams of Medical Doctors, Nurses, Psychologists, Laboratory Staff, Midwives, Pharmacists, Specialists in Finance and Human Resources and Specialists in Technics and Logistics. An MSF field volunteer and a Human Resources Officer will be present.

Date: Tuesday, December 4, 2012, 15.00h – 16.30h

Location: Dean Conference Room, Szigeti Street 12, first floor.

Referents: Dr. Krisztina Mocz, Specialist in Anesthesiology, Budapest
Mag Laura Spannocchi, Human Resources MSF Austria, Vienna

Looking forward to meeting you!
Akos Koller, PTE, ÁOK Vice Dean for Scientific Affairs

For medical aid operations throughout the entire world MSF is on the lookout for qualified volunteers. <http://www.msf.at/work-with-us/>