

3rd International Doctoral Workshop on Natural Sciences

3RD INTERNATIONAL DOCTORAL WORKSHOP ON NATURAL SCIENCES

The tradition continues!

This year the International Doctoral Workshop on Natural Science will be organized third time at the Medical School, University of Pécs. Because of its great success in the previous years, this time the Workshop will last three days to provide an even wider chance for young researchers to present and discuss their findings.

The focus of the conference is on natural and health sciences, as well as on theoretical and clinical medical sciences. The newest results in these fields are going to be presented in form of short oral and e-poster presentations and interactive roundtable discussions.

Date: November 6-8, 2014

Venue: Theoretical Building, Medical School, University of Pécs
