

University of Pécs Faculty of Medical School 2025 Quality Goals

Along the lines established in the Quality Policy Statement of the UP MS and the PotePillars strategic programme, the leadership decided to formulate the following quality goals for 2025 based on the faculty's strategy.

Strategic fit and dimension	Sub-goal	Indicator	Proposal/interpretation of the Chair of the Quality Development Committee of the faculty and Quality Management and Institutional Development Department
Methodological renewal; education + training	digital and collaborative educational support and methodological training At least 500 international students will participate in innovative online programs by 2030.	Number of participants in training (instructor and student together) Number of students participating in innovative online programs in a given year	DMEDC trainings, Methodological crumbs, "Modern educational methods" course, language trainings, POTEPEdia, making e-learning materials accessible to our students and lecturers, Gamification, faculty and university-level academic competitions
Biotechnological excellence; R&D	Mapping of faculty research areas, networking; research on the topic of biotechnological excellence in the scientific areas managed by the faculty	To be confirmed later	Establishment of a faculty scientific research network, establishment of a biotechnology research network and center
Methodological renewal; education + training social responsibility	Increasing the integration of ESG and ERS aspects in training (number of topics changed)	Increasing the integration of ESG, ERS aspects in training (number of modified topics) can be measured by the number of courses already including these aspects)	Training, workshops, recommendations, and assessment of applicability in Demonstration work-PhD topics in line with sustainability principles

Colleagues of the Quality Management and Institutional Development Department and the members of the project groups appointed by the dean contribute to the achievement of the quality goals on time. The implementation of the quality goals affect the entire faculty, the effectiveness is measured by the operation of the quality management system (e.g. through audits, management reviews).

The professional background for setting quality goals related to the educational, research and administrative processes of the Medical School:

MSZ EN ISO 9001:2015 Quality management systems. Requirements Standard 6.2. Planning, quality objective chapter	World Federation for Medical Education (WFME 2020) 1. Mission Statement, and 7. Quality Assurance Standard Requirements
European Higher Education Area Quality Assurance Standards and Guidelines (ESG 2015) 1.1 Quality Assurance Policy Standard	Alliance for European Excellence - EFQM (European Foundation for Quality Management) model Criterion 1 Mission, vision, strategy – domestic equivalent: National Excellence Recognition System (NKER)

Pécs, 19 December 2024

Approved by: Dr. Miklós Nyitrai
dean

